

Veterans and Military Service Members

Veterans and active duty service members may be able to receive academic credit for their military training that counts toward degree requirements. The Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency maintains a database of academic credit for military experience.

Military Credit >

Benefits and Resources

Find a benefits counselor in your area that can help connect you with educational opportunities, benefits, and other services in your local community.

Find a Benefits Counselor >

Emergency Assistance

Emergency assistance is available if you have temporary financial issues with utility bills, vehicle or home repairs, and medical or other debts.

Request Emergency Assistance >

Transferring from Outside of Michigan

If you completed courses at an accredited college or university outside of Michigan, find out how this credit transfers by selecting the institution to which you plan to transfer.

Find Colleges & Universities >

Credit for CLEP Exams

Many colleges and universities in Michigan award academic credit for CLEP exams. If you completed a CLEP exam, find out how this credit can apply to your degree program by selecting the institution to which you plan to transfer.

Find Colleges & Universities >